Disciplinary Policy and Employee or trustee Grievance Procedure reviewed and adopted – January 2018

1. PURPOSE AND SCOPE

Lewisham Parent and Carer's Forum's (LPCF) aim is to encourage improvement in individual conduct or performance. This procedure sets out the action which will be taken when disciplinary rules are breached.

2. PRINCIPLES

- The procedure is designed to establish the facts quickly and to deal consistently with disciplinary issues. No disciplinary action will be taken until the matter has been fully investigated.
- At every stage employee or trustee will be informed in writing of what is alleged and have the opportunity to state their case at a disciplinary meeting and be represented or accompanied, if they wish, by a trade union representative or a work colleague.
- An employee or trustee has the right to appeal against any disciplinary penalty.

3. THE PROCEDURE

Stage 1 – first warning

If conduct or performance is unsatisfactory, the employee or trustee will be given a verbal warning or performance note.

Stage 2 – second warning

If conduct or performance is unsatisfactory, the employee or trustee will be given a written warning or performance note. Such warnings will be recorded, but disregarded after 6 months of satisfactory service. The employee or trustee will also be informed that a final written warning may be considered if there is no sustained satisfactory improvement or change. (Where the first offence is sufficiently serious, for example because it is having, or is likely to have, a serious harmful effect on the organisation, it may be justifiable to move directly to a final written warning.)

Stage 3 – final written warning

If the offence is serious, or there is no improvement in standards, or if a further offence of a similar kind occurs, a final written warning will be given which will include the reason for the warning and a note that if no improvement results within 2 months, action at Stage 3 will be taken.

Stage 4 – dismissal or action short of dismissal

If the conduct or performance has failed to improve, the employee or trustee may suffer dismissal.

4. GROSS MISCONDUCT

If, after investigation, it is confirmed that an employee or trustee has committed an offence of the following nature (the list is not exhaustive), the normal consequence will be dismissal without notice or payment in lieu of notice:

- Theft from the organisation
- Malicious damage to property
- fraud/ corrupt practices
- incapacity for work due to being under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs
- physical assault
- Racial and or sexual abuse
- Improper or unlawful discrimination or harassment
- Wilful disobedience
- Serious breach of health and or safety requirements
- Wilful improper disclosure of information / breaches of confidentiality
- bullying and gross insubordination

While the alleged gross misconduct is being investigated, the employee or trustee may be suspended, during which time he or she will be paid their normal pay rate. Any decision to dismiss will be taken by the employer only after full investigation.

5. APPEALS

An employee or trustee who wishes to appeal against any disciplinary decision must do so to the Board of Trustees within five working days. The Board of Trustees will hear the appeal and decide the case as impartially as possible.

Employee or trustee Grievance Procedure

1. DEALING WITH GRIEVANCES INFORMALLY

If you have a grievance or complaint to do with your work or the people you work you may be able to agree a solution informally between you. However, if this is not possible, you should, start by talking it over with the Board of Trustees and if the issue is with an existing Trustee, they will not be in attendance at this time. The said Trustee will be informed of the grievance or complaint after this takes place.

You may be able to agree a solution informally between you.

2. FORMAL GRIEVANCE

If the matter is serious and/or you wish to raise the matter formally you should set out the grievance in writing to the Chair. You should stick to the facts and avoid language that is insulting or abusive. Where your grievance is against the Chair and you feel unable to approach him or her you should speak to an Trustee officer, or write to the Board of Trustees.

3. GRIEVANCE HEARING

Your Chair will call you to a meeting, normally within five days, to discuss your grievance. You have the right to be accompanied by a colleague or friend representative at this meeting if you make a reasonable request.

After the meeting the Chair will give you a decision in writing, normally within 3 days.

4. APPEAL

If you are unhappy with your Chair’s decision and you wish to appeal you should let your Chair know.

You will be invited to an appeal meeting, normally within five days, and your appeal will be heard by a subcommittee of the Board of Trustees. You have the right to be accompanied by a colleague or friend at this meeting if you make a reasonable request. After the meeting the Chair will give you a decision, normally within 3 days. The decision of the Board of Trustees (or subcommittee) will be final.
